CONGRATULATIONS ALEX SHACKLETON AND CHRISTINE JAGTENBERG ON BECOMING LIFE MEMBERS OF THE CLUB AT THE AGM

Training Supervisor's Report

Hi Members

Another block has begun on your journey into learning how to train your dog so that they are a pleasure to own as well as being able to take them to lots of places like the beach, friends homes, etc., etc.

Your Instructors are going to be very busy this block as there are a lot of members in the nine o'clock groups. Please arrive on time as time is short when there are a lot of members in a class.

I'm happy to tell you that we now have 3 Trainee Instructors, Gary Matthews, Justine Steel & Robert Beckingham, an oldie who has returned to the club. I know you'll all make them welcome.

Did you enjoy the new Fun Day/Presentation Day?. It was great being able to see who received a that special card allowing the handler and dog to move on to a new class. Congratulations to you all, you have put in the training which resulted in you being promoted. The look on the handlers faces who received their Instructors Encouragement award was priceless. Congratulations to you also.

Please remember that when you take your dog into the Off Lead area Don't let it become a Bully by making sure it doesn't hassle one particular dog. We would all appreciate you using the bags provided to pick up after your dog.

Enough from me,

Wish you all "Many Light Bulb Moments" during this Block.

Wendy Ganly

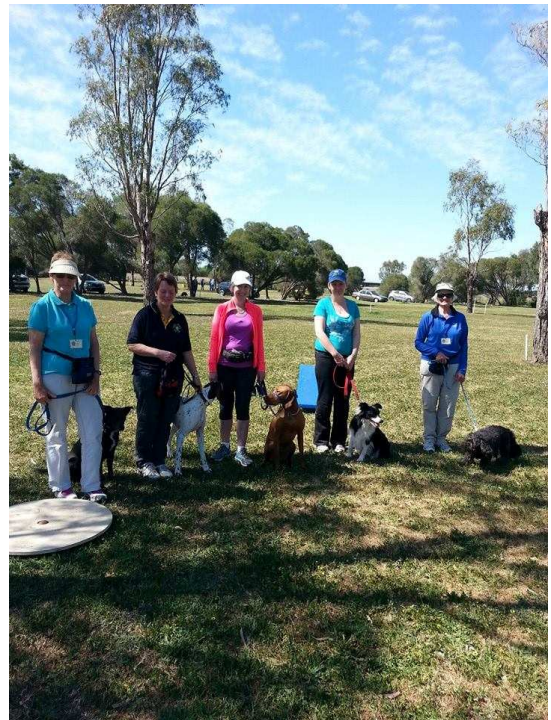

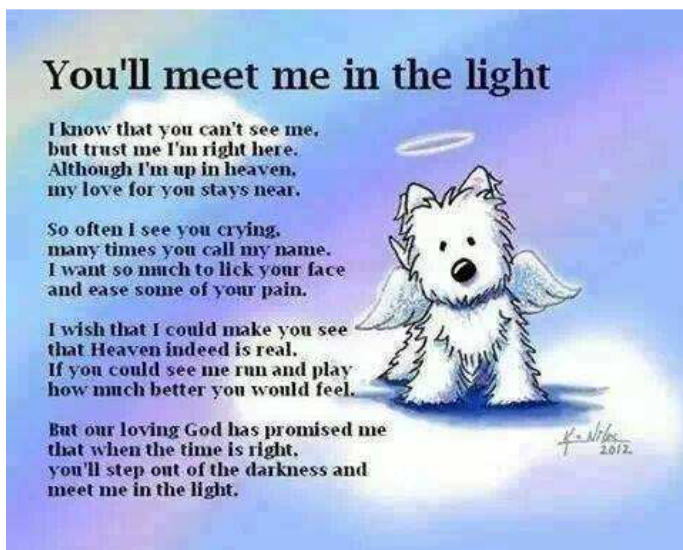

A WORD FROM THE CANTEEN

CHRISTMAS TREATS 2014

The Christmas Treats Fundraiser was well supported last year. This year we will be offering Members the opportunity to participate once again. I will be expanding the offerings this year so come along to the Treats Tasting on Sunday 26th October. It will be running under the veranda starting just after the first lot of classes have finished. Just a reminder that these are mini offerings just to give you a taste. Order forms will be available on the day. Orders will be taken up until late November. A deposit of $5.00 would be appreciated. It's handy to have a little bag of homemade treats to give as a gift for Christmas. Thank you for supporting GODC.

SOME FURRY CLUB MEMBERS DOWN AT THE BEACH

T&S Grand Champion TCh Brynfield Branko RN.

Branko and I have been hitting the streets of Geelong, Bendigo, Morwell, Ballarat and Cranbourne working our way through tests 4 to 10 in Track and Search.

I am pleased and proud with my boy as he took to this style of tracking with ease.

At the start of a track the judge gives me a bag which I would open and give Branko a sniff, and then we were off in search of our lost track layer. As we progressed the length of cooking time of a track increased up to 4 hours, so we had some waiting time while this occurred. We also had pauses on the tracks and the last two, the track layer had a ride in a car for a short section. Test 6, 8, and 10 were all conducted in the dark.

Branko will now be known as T&S Grand Champion TCh Brynfield Branko RN. A special thanks to Rebecca Kearney and Reuben and Wyatt for being there and sharing this journey with us.

COPPERTOP PERFECT PITCHA CCD, RA, (Piper)

We dared to go on a journey to Ballarat a few weeks back and the 'sun shone' for us all. Wow! Fortunately Piper hasn't found Rally as daunting as Obedience competition where that strange person called a Judge keeps following you around the ring all the time. Rally Judges don't seem to 'dog' you quite so much!

After she obtained her Rally Advanced Title I wasn't going to go for Excellent with her. However, she competed in a Trial where her mate Kuyan obtained his Title and she passed so we thought we'd push on for the other two passes required. Handler error stopped her from getting two passes at Geelong and then she injured herself and was unable to jump in last event of the day.

So, we arrived at Ballarat with fingers crossed. Once again handler error cost her quite a few points, but she obtained enough to get that third pass. Piper has the ability but not the confidence so I am really pleased with her efforts in Rally. So together with Kuyan am pleased to say they are the first two Victorian Dobermanns to obtain their RE Titles.

Piper obtained her CCD Title at Ballarat and I've even had a previous Dobermann get his Championship Title there and win a BEST IN SHOW at the same time (all breeds). So this goldrush town certainly gives us our own rush!

Piper has now retired from formal competition and just continues her monthly nursing home visits, whilst her mate continues to do his weekly visits and obtain treats from their many friends there. Considering in April due to ill health I was unsure I'd make it back into a competitive ring, am proud of my duo for making it easier for me to get there again. – Elaine Longshaw

Dog Biscuit Recipe

Ingredients

Serves: 18

2 cups (250g) wholemeal flour
1 tablespoon baking powder
270g unsalted natural peanut butter
1 cup (250ml) low fat milk

Method

Preheat the oven to 190 degrees C. Grease baking trays. Stir together the flour and baking powder and set aside.

In a medium bowl, mix together the peanut butter and milk. Stir in the flour mixture until well blended.

Turn dough out onto a lightly floured surface and knead until smooth. Roll out to 1cm thickness and cut into shapes using biscuit cutters.

Place 2cm apart on the prepared baking trays.

Bake for 20 minutes or until lightly brown. Remove from baking trays to cool on wire rack

KAREN DAMIANI – CHAOS TO CALM

On Saturday a group of dog owners benefited greatly from a workshop hosted by Karen Damiani. This is called Chaos to Calm. The workshop is a half day focused on teaching owners how to calm their overstimulated dogs. Karen has worked for years in rehabilitating shelter dogs and has worked out strategies for teaching pet dog owners how to reconnect with their overly excitable dogs.

Currently these workshops are held at Boroondara Dog Training in Melbourne but can be booked for clubs and members.

Exercises were for dog that went over the top when overstimulated by something in the environment.

These exercises would be a great benefit to all instructors to start their classes with.

The impression I got was that the dog who overstimulated by the environment in some way, was to be taught a series of exercises to do, which require concentrating on the sequence.

This in turn lowered the excitement level due to its sheer repetition.

Also you are trying to create a bubble for the dog and not let other dogs into this space.

We worked on:-

Add a sound Bridge. (“good” being more calming than the usual “yes” for the overstimulated dog).

Exercises

- 1 Count of three with backward and forward arm/hand movement for each count, and release treat to fall on dog at count of three.
- 2 Move a few steps in three different directions. Repeat sequence
- 3 Ask for a “Sit” say “good” and pay. Extend the still sitting moment by adding extra “Goods” before treating.
- 4 Add a distraction like a soft toy with squeaker. Get someone to operate the toy. When dog looks at the toy say “End” and walk away.
Repeat till ignoring all distractions.
Note *Compliant is NOT calm.
- 5 Massage. All over moving muscles under the skin. Get a rhythm going and rick the dog with the movement. Let the dog get up when he wants too. Work up a sweat doing this. Remember to squash up the ears and face. (reminder when resting don’t touch or feed, just let the brain rest).
- 6 Step forward – as soon as the dog focuses forward/moves forward, stop, say “end” and back up and turn away in a largish circle so that you are not correcting the dog with the lead.
(the default behaviour you are looking for is – See dog move to owner). You are creating a safety umbrella for the dog. Do not ever let other dogs into that safety area.

Hope this may be of interest to members.

Kind regards,

Helen Read

TRIAL RESULTS

Jorja had another practice run in the open Regular and Tunnels events at the NADAC Nationals on Oct 18th 2014.

Once again she didn't let me down. It was the handlers fault for not getting a place in Regular 1 as the Handler lost her way on the course.

She does all that is asked of her with no errors but is so slow on the course as she's a terrier and terrier's love to check out the different smells.

Jorja Open Regular 2 - 4 " Vet S NQ 1st Place

Jorja Open Tunnelers 1 - 4" Vet Handler S NQ 2nd Place

Getting to know your Instructors & Committee Members

Heather Miller

What type of dog/dog's do you own

I own an Australian Kelpie, Cilla, who is almost 5, and a Dalmatian, Piper who is 18 months old.

How many dogs have you trained

I have trained 5 Dalmatians, a Hungarian Vizsla and my Kelpie. 5 of those 7 competed in Open class in Obedience trialling – and Piper will be the sixth. I have no doubt he will get right through to UDX.

Do you have any other pets at home

Not at the moment, but in Qld I kept a large tank of native Australian Rainbowfish. I really need to set up another aquarium.

How long have you been involved with the Club

I joined the Club in November 2011, soon after moving here from Brisbane.

What is the most memorable time you have had with your dog

One of the most memorable times (there have been lots) was competing with my very first Dally in Lure Coursing. Max competed against all other breeds EXCEPT Sight hounds, and won the Shannett Cup in 1995. Felt just like a winning racehorse owner feels!!

Describe yourself in three words

Difficult.....no ..not me, the question, silly! Err, straightforward, intuitive, cheerful.

Who are your heroes

I have one main hero and that's Jan Fennell the original English Dog Listener. I have seen and read how her work has saved the lives of countless dogs throughout the U.K., Europe and America, with owners almost at their wits end trying to solve behaviour issues – the “Yo-Yo” dog or the “Final Solution” are very rarely necessary when Jan's simple method brings these dogs, and their families, to peace. It is truly amazing work!

What makes you laugh

Clever word-pictures. Recently it was “psychic” (me) vs. “psychotic” (you-know-who-you-are). And my best mate in Brisbane ☺. Definitely not American humour!

What was or is your profession

I was a tunnel-visioned student with a Pharmacy degree in my sights. I worked as a community Pharmacist for 36 years, enjoying it immensely. However when I retired I never gave it another thought – I now get great pleasure from helping people with their dogs instead of their drugs!

If you had unlimited money, what car would you drive

It would be an eco-friendly Hybrid electric/diesel wagon, high ground clearance, all-wheel drive, large enough for dogs plus gear, with all the bells and whistles, plus Turbo - I like power..... it isn't on the market yet!! So, I'd make do with a Volvo XC70.

Again, unlimited money, where would you go on holiday

I'd spend lots of time in the Canadian and American Rockies, and Yellowstone Park for extended wolf-watching... and then The Big Island of Hawaii on the way home...avoiding all the tourists!

What is your favourite food

Without a doubt good prawns and seafood! Cuisine..... Indian, Italian, Spanish, Thai, etc, etc, etc! And my favourite drink is Gin and Tonic... and Shiraz, and Kahlua, etc, etc.

What is your favourite music

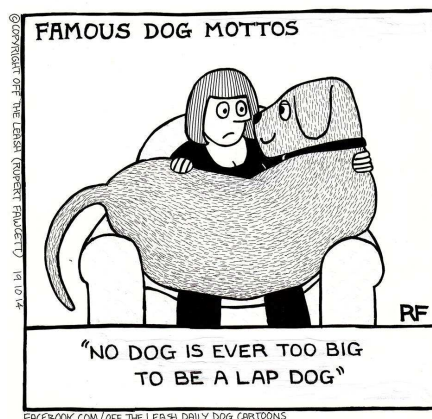

A definite fan of the Oldies but Goldies.... Beatles of course, Moody Blues, Elton John, Simon and Garfunkel, Beach Boys, John Farnham. But also Norah Jones, Kate Ceberano, Classical guitar.

What is your favourite sport

I'd have to say AFL; it sort of crept up on me over the years, and being a Brisbane Lions fan during the Three-peat of Premierships helped.

What are three wishes you have for Geelong Obedience Dog Club

I don't know that I have three separate ones, but I'd love to see the Club in a flood-free, fully fenced environment, with good fine grass and no burrs or bindis. And a huge, fully equipped kitchen for Nanette! And a ride-on to pull an Agility equipment trailer. A Club where many more of the general members give back to the Club with their help on working or promotional days when it is needed – everyone is a volunteer – I'd like us to be a stimulating, progressive club for the enjoyment of members and their dogs in general and promotion of Obedience sports in particular.

T. Gavaghan thanked C. Sparks for her efforts in the Nadac Trials.

Motion on the books in relation to increasing the Club fees:

"That all membership fees should be increased yearly by $2.00."

Discussion arising from the Motion:

- M. Brown stated that $2.00 is not in line with the CPI so why not increase it by $5.00.
- Jim suggested that a percentage increase be applied to the membership fee only.
- Brendan suggested fees increase by $5.00.
- Alex suggested that the increase be less for people on concessions - $2.00.
- Roland pointed out that the increase can't come in until July 2015 – we need to plan ahead.
- Jim suggested $2.00 for each year - $5.00 would be too much.
- Alex suggested that maybe a percentage increase would be better in the long run or address it on an annual basis.
- Vivienne stated that maybe it was better to charge for classes per dog rather than per member.
- M. Brown suggested a sliding scale for those with more than one dog.

AMENDMENT TO THE MOTION:

“That membership fees be increased by $5.00 and that this amount be reviewed annually.”

Moved: H. Miller Seconded: J. Ball In Favour: Carried unanimously

ACTION: The Committee to review the fee structure next year.

Life Membership: Congratulations to C. Jagtenberg and A. Shackleton who were awarded Life Membership for 2014.

General Business:

- J. Ball has been approached by Robert Eagles who does a local radio program on Friday afternoon regarding someone to go down to talk about the GODC.

ACTION: R. Tunncliffe to talk to Robert about his requirements and bring it back to the Committee.

- R. Linford raised concerns about the general running of the Club and the need to document what we do as an organisation.

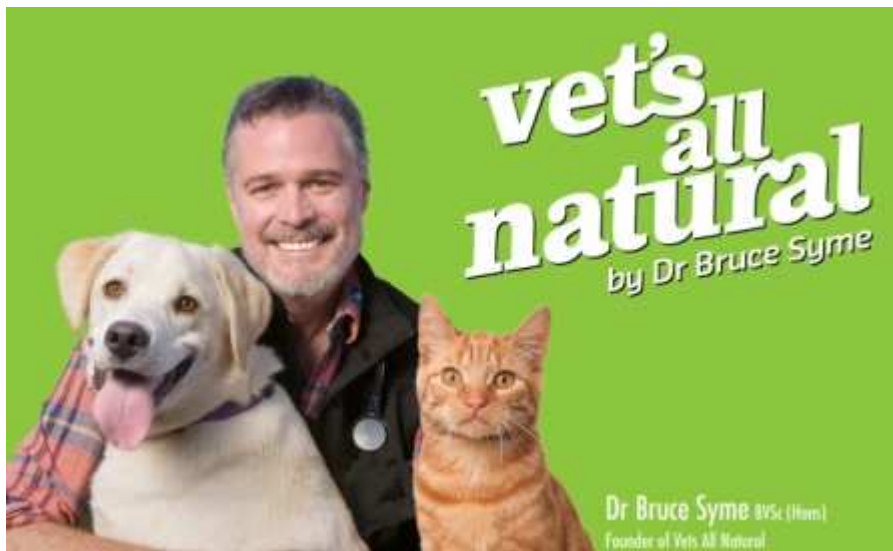

ACTION: The Committee to begin the review process of the Club's operating procedures.

- C. Sparks raised the issue of the Club supplying a "barrier" around the agility ring for the 2015 Nadac Trials.
- R. Tunncliffe advised Carol to address the issue to the Trial Secretary who would bring it to the Committee.
- W. Ganly informed us that the VCA has new titling events and asked whether the Club would be interested in Tri-Ball and Dancing with Dogs.

ACTION: W. Ganly to put the proposal to Heather Miller.

- E. Longshaw asked why the Trial catalogue was not in numerical order. T. Button responded that dogs have one number for the trial and it went in height order.
- B. Jagtenberg informed members that tickets for the upcoming 60th Anniversary/Presentation night were filling up fast. Numbers have been capped at 80.
- R. Tunncliffe expressed thanks to R. Linford for his work during his presidency.
